DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Mr. Lucas made a short address, saying that he was not seeking the office, but that he would accept the nomination if the convention said it wanted him.

Mr. Colburn's amendment was snowed under and the original motion carried by an overwhelming vote, which caused great cheering.

Delegates to Territorial Convention.

Chairman McCarthy here announced that the next order of business was to place in nomination the names of thirty-six men as delegates to the territorial convention. The first man nominated was Julius Asch, then in the following order were nominated: F. W. Spencer, E. B. McClanahan, W. A. Kinney, Isaac Harbottle, J. A. Cummings, D. Makakani, W. S. Withers, E. K. Naoho, C. J. Campbell, John Awa, T. R. Lucas, Abram Fernandez, Eugene Sullivan, C. J. McCarthy, S. C. Dwight, Ed Lewis, W. S. Johnson, F. J. Harvey, Harry Armitage, C. R. De-ment, C. L. Rhodes, H. J. Mossman, F. S. Peachy, Chris. J. Holt, John Emmeluth, Frank Brown, John H. Wise, D. G. Camarinos, John Schaefer, Edmund H. Hart, S. K. Kaloa, John D. Holt, J. F. Colburn, W. C. Wilder, Jr., J. S. McGrew, Edmund Stiles, J. E. Bush, J. A. Camara.

It was moved and seconded that the nominations close and Chairman McCarthy stated that there were but thirty-six names in nomination he would declare it the sense of the meeting that the thirty-six were elected by acclamation. As a matter of fact there were thirty-nine names in nomination and the chairman read off the names, leaving out those of W. S. Johnson, F. J. Harvey and J. D. Holt. The statement and reading of the names was received with applause by the meeting and when the name of Camarinos was read there were three hearty cheers given.

E. B. McClanahan moved that the meeting next proceed to the election of the alternates. He had no sooner made his motion than Eugene Sullivan arose and started to make another motion and was told by the chair that he was out of order, and this being the case he sat down and the house then proceeded to yell their choice for alternates to the chair. There should have been thirty-six put in nomination, but when eighteen had been named the chair declared nominations closed and the following elected: J. D. Holt, Jr., W. T. Monarrat, H. P. Walton, L. D. Timmons, John Effinger, H. S. Swinson, J. P. Dias, J. B. Gorman, John Markham, Joe Fern, C. D. High, G. A. Long, Mike Harvy, F. J. Testa. R. C. A. Peterson's name was put before the house for alternate, but the chairman decided that he did not belong to the party and when the names were read his was not among them.

Instructed for Prince David.
H. S. Withers moved that the delegates be instructed to vote for Prince

David as the choice of the Honolulu democrats for the delegate to congress. This motion was carried without a dissenting vote and with much enthusiasm the name of the prince was cheered to the echo.

On motion the meeting tendered a vote of thanks to the management of the Orpheum and the musicians and talent who had furnished entertainment during the evening and Wise was called upon for a speech. The crowd yelled for Wise and although everybody wanted "Hen" Wise to entertain them some more, John H. Wise stepped forth with his usual modesty and made a short speech in Hawaiian. He did not say anything about sixteen to ten, nor did he mention the name of William Cullen Bryant once during the talk. Since the democratic ratification meeting held some time ago in the drill shed when Mr. Wise truthfully declared in answer to a call from the floor to tell the assembled multitudes the meaning of sixteen to ten that he "didn't know what it meant and that if the great William Cullen Bryant were himself here tonight I don't think he could tell you what it meant," he has not said much about the sixteen to ten proposition.

His speech, although in Hawaiian, seemed to be understood by most of those present, as he was applauded several times and seemed to have the crowd with him when they were listening.

After the speech a motion to adjourn was heard and quickly seconded. The band played the "Star Spangled Banner" and the meeting was over.

NOT FOR PARTY USES.

The Band Will Play for Public Only in Future.

The republican territorial convention had to worry along without the services of the band last evening. Instead, that talented musical organization discoursed sweet melody at Emma square, which was greatly appreciated by a large number of people. At the meeting of the territorial council yesterday the request that the band play at the Oahu college reception to President Smith was adversely considered, consequently it could not consistently be called upon to render musical numbers at the convention. The announcement to the contrary was made by Bandmaster Berger previous to his having a consultation with the territorial council, and upon learning of the disposition of the request of Oahu college Captain Berger announced that the regular concert at the square would be given. Captain Berger states that the error arose from his consultation with Secretary Cooper, from whom he usually received instruction regarding the band and its movements. As that official expressed no objection to furnishing melody at the convention, the band leader acted accordingly, until he received notification of the governor's wishes in the matter.

Kinaiu This Afternoon.

The Kinaiu will leave here today at 5 p. m. instead of at noon. This change in time is to accommodate the delegates to the conventions now in town. The Mauna Loa will sail at the regular time to day, 10 a. m.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Fourth district will do its utmost to bring about the election of Parker.

George H. Carter seconded the nomination on behalf of the Fifth district. He said it was a matter of congratulation that the convention and party was so unanimous for Samuel Parker for delegate to congress and moved that the secretary be instructed to cast the unanimous ballot of the convention for Parker.

Parker's Short Talk.

Messrs. Loebenstein and Carter escorted Mr. Parker to the stage, who in acknowledging the nomination said:

"I want to thank you all for the highest honor that can be bestowed upon an American citizen. It is an election, which I hope I will be, and with your help I know I will be, I will use my best endeavor to carry out the platform adopted here today and do my best for all people under the flag, including the democrats and independents."

The democratic delegate, Prince David, is one of my best friends. I have more to say, but don't want to give Wilcox any points. I want you to remember what President McKinley said to me July 12: 'Colonel Parker, can you defeat Wilcox as the first delegate to congress from Hawaii?' 'Mr. President, that's a hard question, but I'll do the best I can,' I replied. But can we beat Prince David? I think we can."

Three cheers and a tiger were given for Parker and then the glee club, composed of F. W. Beardslee, W. J. Coelho, J. Lovett Rothwell and Cal Melvin, entertained the convention with some excellent singing.

Territorial Committee.

After a recess of ten minutes, the districts reported the following names for members of the territorial central committee:

First district—F. B. McStocker, James Gibb, W. G. Walker, C. H. Easted.

Second district—H. L. Holstein, J. A. Maguire, G. P. Kaunamaka, S. W. Kekuewa.

Fifth district—J. L. McCabe, W. J. Coelho, T. McCants Stewart, Andrew Cox, George F. Renton, Dr. G. H. Huddy.

Members of the committee will meet at the republican headquarters at 2 o'clock this morning for the purpose of organizing the committee and electing officers and an executive committee.

CHINAMAN DIED OF PLAGUE.

Doctor Does Not Think That Wong Chong Sow Caught Plague Here.

The Chinaman who died of plague at Kobe shortly after having been removed from the steamer Coptic, has been traced to Honolulu. His name was Wong Chong Sow, and he took passage here on the 2d of August after having arrived from Kahlau on the other side of the Pail. He was taken sick after the vessel left Yokohama and was discovered by the doctor of the Coptic when a few hours from Kobe.

The man was examined by the health officials at the latter place who gave it as their opinion that his was a case of plague, and a rat inoculated with a culture made from the man's blood soon showed unmistakable plague symptoms and died. A slide was prepared and was brought by the Coptic to Dr. Carmichael, who upon examining it under the microscope declares it a perfect specimen of the plague bacilli.

Where the man contracted the plague is a mystery that the doctors here and in Kobe do not care to give an opinion. After the man was taken from the Coptic three dead rats were found on the steamer.

Dr. Carmichael says that there is hardly any possibility of the man having had plague at the time that he left this port. He had lived at Kahlau for four years and was not in Honolulu during the time the plague was here. He had only remained here over night when he came to take the steamer, and had taken nothing on the vessel with him from here except what he had brought from over the Pail. The Coptic was thoroughly fumigated at Kobe, and on her return and before leaving Yokohama she was fumigated again. There is hardly a chance that there were any rats left in the vessel when she left Yokohama. All precautions possible, short of a quarantine, were observed here in regards to the docking of the vessel.

SWEEPING VICTORY IN MAINE.

Pine Tree State Rolls up Big Republican Majority.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 10.—J. H. Manley, chairman of the Republican State Committee, sent the following dispatch to M. A. Hanna tonight:

"Maine stands by the splendid administration of William McKinley. The voters of the Pine Tree State have given today the largest Republican majority ever given in the history of the State to any party, with the single exception of four years ago, when our opponents were completely paralyzed and threw the smallest vote they ever cast in a Presidential year since 1860. The Republicans, against a determined and united Democracy, have carried every county save one in the State, electing more than 150 out of 181 members of the Legislature, which will return to the United States Senate William P. Frye. We have elected our delegates to Congress by majorities ranging from 7000 to 10,000. We have carried the State by 21,000 majority out of a total vote of 115,000."
